

Fukuoka International Exchange Foundation Home Stay/Home Visit Usage

Conditions of Use

1. FIEF introduces Home Stay/Home Visit to foreigners who have an interest in Japanese lifestyle and culture, and can provide a reputable Japanese organization as a guarantor.
2. In general, the duration of a Home Stay is to be less than one week. Home Visits are to be around 2-3 hours, excluding meals.
3. In general, the basic costs of Home Stay (food, utilities, etc.) are to be borne by the accepting host family. However, other personal expenses (transport, phone bills, meals outside of the house, cleaning bills, etc.) should be paid for by the guest.
4. Home Stays are organized with the intention of creating a valuable international exchange opportunity for foreigners and local residents. They may not be used as a way to save accommodation or meal costs.

Application Procedure

1. Please submit applications at least 3 weeks prior to your desired date of stay.

[Application Forms]

Application by Guarantor Organization	Application by International Student
- Individual Information Form (Form 2.1)	- Individual Form (Form 2.1)
- Application Form (Form 2.2)	- Application Form (Form 2.3)
- Appendix (Fukuoka International Exchange Foundation Home Stay/Home Visit Usage)	- Appendix (Fukuoka International Exchange Foundation Home Stay/Home Visit Usage)

2. If the applying organization is not a government agency or educational institution (e.g university), please submit documents with a summary of the organization.
3. Please advise us if you are applying for home stay through multiple organization at the same time.
4. International students must take a brief orientation at FIEF before the home stay.

Other

1. In some cases it may not be possible to find a host family that fits the criteria of the application. We ask for your understanding.
2. FIEF is not responsible if the selected host family becomes unable to fulfil the agreement due to emergency or unexpected circumstances.
3. Neither FIEF nor the host family is responsible for accidents or damage which may occur during the Home Stay/Home Visit. The guest is liable for any damages caused to the host family.

I agree to the above conditions regarding Fukuoka International Exchange Foundation Home Stay/Home Visit usage.

Sign _____